

Educational Options for Wesleyan Ministerial Students

1. Wesleyan Colleges/Universities provide the preferred track of ministerial training in the Wesleyan Church. The Wesleyan Church has five excellent schools, which offer all of the courses required for credentials in the Wesleyan Church. Our schools include Kingswood University, Sussex, New Brunswick, Canada; Houghton College, Houghton, New York; Indiana Wesleyan University, Marion, Indiana; Oklahoma Wesleyan University, Bartlesville, Oklahoma; and Southern Wesleyan University, Central, South Carolina.

2. Approved Seminaries allow a student to fulfill many of the ordination requirements at one of our approved seminaries: Wesley Seminary at IWU, Asbury Theological Seminary, Azusa Pacific Seminary, Evangelical Seminary, Nazarene Theological Seminary, Northeastern Seminary, Portland Seminary, Tyndale Seminary, and Wesley Biblical Seminary. More information is available at www.wesleyan.org/ecd/approved-seminaries.

3. FLAME courses are for students 28 years of age or older (or have completed a college degree) and who are non-traditional (not attending one of our colleges or seminaries). Courses are administered by Kingwood University in Canada, are taught by qualified instructors and cost $245 (Canadian) plus the cost of textbooks. FLAME use Zoom video conference technology to bring together the convenience of online education with the benefits of live classroom interaction. More information is available at <https://www.kingswood.edu/kingswood-extended/kingswood-ext-flame/>

4. FLAMA Fraternidad Latinoamericana de Adiestramiento Ministerial Alternativo - Como el nombre indica, es un programa academico en Español para estudiantes ministeriales Hispanos para la licencia ministerial para la ordenación en La Iglesia Wesleyana. www.wesleyan.org/ecd/en-espanol.

5. Correspondence Courses aStudents have 3 months to complete each course and may register for no more than two courses at one time. Course descriptions, additional information and online registration are available at <https://www.kingswood.edu/kingswood-extended/kingswood-ext-correspondence-2/>.

6. Cross Training is an online program offered by Oklahoma Wesleyan University. These courses fulfill the academic requirements for ordination. www.okwu.edu/online/programs/crosstraining/.

7. Credit by Portfolio allows an individual who has mastered a particular area of the academic training standards through extensive experience or a combination of related courses, seminars, extensive research and/or reading, to apply for credit. Credit by Portfolio applications are available at the Student Portal in the "Forms" tab.

8. District extension classes are district-sponsored classes sanctioned by Education and Clergy Development. Check with district leaders for more information.

Credentialing And Academic Prerequisites

(Adult Education Students)

1. Expository Preaching – Required Pre-requisite: Intro to Homiletics
2. Advanced Theology – Required Prerequisite: Intro to Theology
3. Bible, Theology, Preaching – Suggested Prerequisite: Methods of Bible Study

District Ministerial Licensing Academic Prerequisites

1. Old Testament Intro
2. New Testament Intro
3. Wesleyan History/Discipline
4. Intro to Theology
5. Intro to Homiletics
6. Church Leadership/Management

Supervised Ministry may be taken at any time during the student's course of study.

Contact Information

Education and Clergy Development

w: www.wesleyan.org/ecd

p: 317-774-3912

e: education@wesleyan.org

f: 317-774-3915